JULY

Day two at the AMA Scale Aerobatic Nats started off overcast with low ceilings and some nice breezes mixed in just for fun. All of the competitors were aware of the impending storm front barreling toward Muncie, Indiana, and we all wondered how long we would be able to fly before Mother Nature won a few rounds.

The morning started off with Unknowns, and despite the conditions, the Unknowns went off without a hitch—although some pilots may disagree!

In Sportsman, Joshua McCreary won the Unknown sequence and continues to be at the top of the class, having won all but two sequences. It looks as though Joseph Thibodeau and Matt Britt are coming on strong, so don't count them out! First-time Sportsman pilot Greg Alderman continues to hold down the fourth position with Adam Falk right behind Greg in fifth.

Once again, the Intermediate class pilots continue to duke it out. Ben "Ham" Jenkins won the Unknown sequence, but not by much. Mitch Johnson and Evan Turner continue to apply the pressure to Ben and each other. This battle should be an enjoyable one to watch over the next two days. Terry Pellerin continues to hold down the fourth spot with Ron Graham right on his heels.

Winning the Unknown and all Known sequences on Tuesday has propelled Santiago Perez into a dead heat with Kal Reifsnyder. This fight has been gratifying to watch and I'm sure it will not disappoint today. Conner Barnes continues to stay close and is one good day away from being right in the thick of it!

Unlimited class continues to be the Kurt Koelling show with a win in the Unknown and all Known sequences. Ty Lyman is still holding down second with Tyler McCormack in third, Corey Ford forth, and Ray Murray in fifth.

Good luck to all of the competitors today and don't forget about the banquet tonight.

P.S. Wayne, it's okay to use the runway today!
