Another year of the IMAC Nats is in the books and this year did not disappoint! Some classes remained status quo and some classes had some big movers.

As stated previously, Friday's flying consisted of two rounds of Knowns and two rounds of Unknowns. These rounds were worth 50% of the pilot's score. These scores were added to the carryover score from the previous three days.

In Sportsman class, Kobe Canton continued his domination of the class to win his first National Championship. Kobe was gracious in his acceptance of the trophy, noting that Sam Pankratz was equally deserving of this award. Congrats to William Wilson on his third-place finish.

In Intermediate, Joseph Tibodeau was able to hold off a hard-charging Carlos Bonachea to win his first National Championship. David Herron rounded out the top three.

In Advanced class, Evan Turner and Ben Jenkins traded rounds and fought hard with Ben coming out on top and Evan finishing second. Mitch Johnson, flying a borrowed airplane because he lost his primary aircraft, was able to make the podium in third.

Last, but certainly not least, the Unlimited class did not disappoint. Kurt Koelling and David Moser scraped it out all week and the finals were no different. In the end, David Moser was able to take his first IMAC Unlimited National Championship by a margin of approximately 30 points. That is close. Needless to say, these two pilots were the class of the field. Will Berninger rounded out the top three.

The big mover of the day was Kal Reifsnnyder. Kal finished third for the day, which propelled him from sixth to fourth overall in Unlimited.

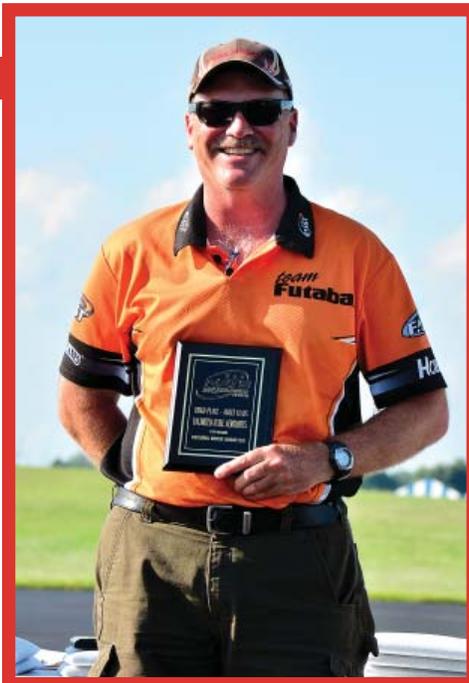

As always, Freestyle did not disappoint. Nine competitors flew their wings off to entertain the crowd. It was clear that these pilots were ready to unwind after the long grind of this IMAC contest. Judges were chosen from all competing regions and these guys got a front-row seat. We even had an impromptu dance crew from the Clover Creek group put on a show during Sam Pankratz's flight.

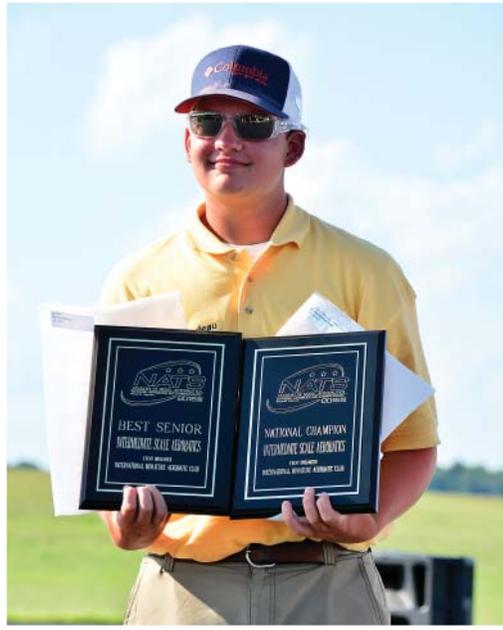

Tyler McCormack won his second consecutive Freestyle Championship, with David Moser finishing second and Kal Reifsnnyder finishing third.

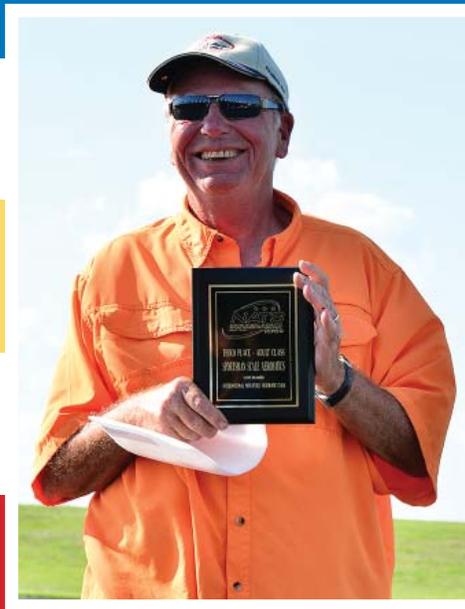

Congrats to the Southeast region for winning the regional points award. The three pilots that made up the team were Ben Jenkins, David Moser, and Kobe Canton.

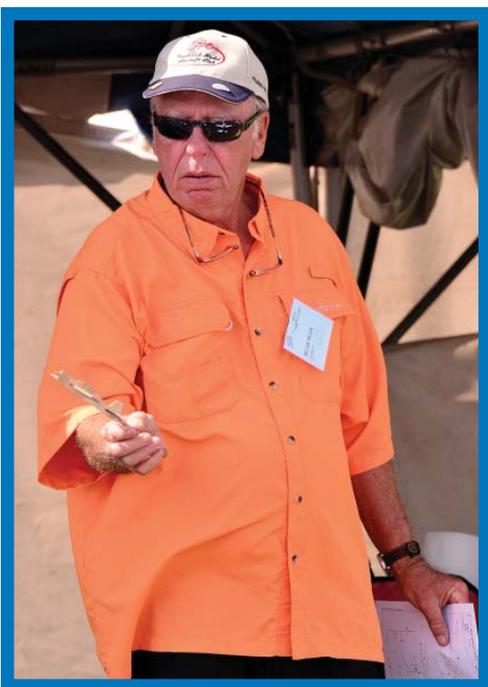

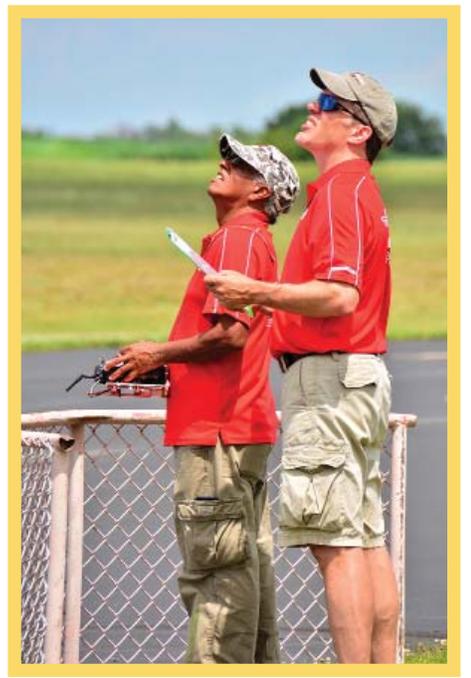

Finally, it was time for the Bennett Cup Award. This award is for the pilot whose raw scores are closest to perfection; no throw-out and no drops. For the past six years, Kurt Koelling has been the recipient of this award, which is a run unmatched by any other Bennett Cup recipient. When Kurt came to the podium to present the Bennett Cup, everyone realized there would be a new name engraved on the cup. Congratulations to David Moser for being the 2016 Bennett Cup recipient. It is clear that David and Kurt have great respect for each other and that this battle is not over.

Safe travels to everyone heading home and I look forward to seeing everyone again in 2017! 🚀
