AMA Foundation to Host Inaugural Jet Rally

March 17, 2017: Muncie, IN: The Academy of Model Aeronautics Foundation will host the inaugural AMA Foundation for the Future Jet Rally in Ottumwa, Iowa, August 24-27, 2017. The event, which will benefit the AMA Foundation, will include a full-scale air show that is part of Ottumwa’s annual Fly Ottumwa celebration.

Event registration is now open. The $65 pilot fee includes a dinner and one crew pass. Tent spaces, camping, and additional options are available as well.

“Our team is very excited to host this event in conjunction with Fly Ottumwa,” said director of development for the AMA Foundation, Mandee Mikulski. “The city has fully embraced model flying activity, and we are thrilled to invite the jet community to join in the fun.”

Additional information, registration, and event sponsorship information for the AMA Foundation for the Future Jet Rally can be found on the event website at amafoundation.modelaircraft.org/jetrally.

The Academy of Model Aeronautics Foundation, founded in 2013, raises the funds necessary to assist the Academy of Model Aeronautics with programs outside of general membership activities. These programs benefit education through model aviation, club and flying site support, and the National Model Aviation Museum.
