The following was published in the April 1991 issue of Model Aviation magazine. Frank was a 1990 Charles Hampson Grant Scholarship winner.

Frank Drammissi of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is a freshman at Villanova University studying mechanical engineering. He received $1,000 to supplement his educational funding.

Frank is a member of three AMA clubs in the Philadelphia area and enjoys building and flying .40 and .60 Pattern ships. His aviation interest also extends to full-scale airplanes. He is currently enrolled as a midshipman in the Navy ROTC program and hopes to become a Naval Aviator.

A 1990 graduate of St. John Neumann High School, he was a member of the National Honor Society, the Chemistry Club and the school newspaper staff. He was also a varsity letterman of the golf and track teams.

Frank has worked as a volunteer in the Aide for Friends Program, a food delivery service for the sick and elderly. He also participated in Philadelphia's Challenge to You drug program and is an active member in his church Catholic Youth Organization.
