

The AMA History Project Presents: Biography of TODD G. MOREY

Written by AMA staff (01/1988); Transcribed by JS (05/2008), Reformatted by JS (10/2009)

The following was published in the January 1988 issue of Model Aviation magazine. Todd was a 1987 Sig Memorial Scholarship winner.

Todd G. Morey, of Traverse City, MI, is studying Aviation Technology at Purdue University, Indiana. As a member of the TRAMPS (Traverse Area Model Pilots Society), Todd was active in sport and contest flying. He enjoys everything from Peanut Scale to warbirds, Pylon Racing to quarter-scale. He entered many contests in the USA and Canada and won several trophies.

At Purdue, Todd is taking full-scale flight training as part of his education. He is also enrolled in the Marine NROTC, and serves as a Squad Leader and newsletter staff member.
