

The AMA History Project Presents: Biography of ELIZABETH THRONE

Written by AMA staff (01/1988); Transcribed by JS (05/2008), Reformatted by JS (02/2010)

The following was published in the January 1988 issue of Model Aviation magazine. Elizabeth was a 1987 Sig Memorial Scholarship winner.

Elizabeth Throne plans a major in Marketing and/or Advertising at the University of Maryland, College Park, MD. She attended high school in Syracuse (NY) and comes from a family that is model aviation oriented. In 1983 and 1985, she was a worker at the Chicopee Nats. She has been a regular helper at the annual symposium run by the Central New York Modelers. Elizabeth completed a radio-controlled aircraft recently and plans to improve her skills.

As a student, she was a member of the National Honor Society, and as an athlete, she enjoyed swimming and running. She is an accomplished writer and equestrian.

Her community activities included volunteer work for both the Cancer Society and the Heart Association, and she has been involved with local youth athletic seminars and meets.

This PDF is property of the Academy of Model Aeronautics. Permission must be granted by the AMA History Project for any reprint or duplication for public use.

AMA History Project
National Model Aviation Museum
5151 E. Memorial Dr.
Muncie IN 47302
(765) 287-1256, ext. 511
historyproject@modelaircraft.org

