

The AMA History Project Presents: Autobiography of CHARLES WHETSEL

Born April 16, 1933

Written by CW (2003); Edited by JS (12/2007), Reformatted by JS (02/2010)

The following autobiography was published in Who's Who in AMA, 2003, District V.

Charles Whetsel has been a member of the AMA since 1983 when he joined with his son, Charles Jr. (Bill), who is a project manager for NASA's Mars Exploration Program.

Charles is a retired United Methodist Minister. He served actively in the Pastorate for 37 years as a member of the Holston Conference. He received his undergraduate degree at Emory and Henry College, and received his M.D.V. from Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. He graduated from Morristown High School in 1951, and is currently active in the alumni association.

He flies with the Cherokee Radio Control Flyers of Morristown, Tennessee. He has served in several offices and now is the treasurer and co-editor of the club's newsletter, Wing Tips
