Duties and Responsibilities Guidance for Associate Vice Presidents

Purpose:
To best serve its members, clubs and programs, the Academy of Model Aeronautics (AMA) has developed duties and responsibilities for its Vice Presidents (VPs) and Associative Vice Presidents (AVPs). This document outlines AVP objectives and responsibilities, for AVPs working under the direction of their respective Vice President.

Application:
While each AMA district is geographically, and by necessity, operationally different and each may require unique management, the duties of an AVP are universally applicable, as recommended by the District Vice President.

Role of the AMA Associate Vice President (AVP)

Associate Vice Presidents are appointed to their position by the Vice President in their respective districts. AVPs do not serve for a specific term or time frame, but at the pleasure of their Vice President. As described in the AMA bylaws and Standing Rules, each Vice President has the sole authority to make changes in AVP positions as deemed necessary for the benefit of their District and the Academy.

“The Associate Vice President will serve as a liaison between the members of the district and the District Vice President. He may attend functions on behalf of the Vice President and perform other duties as required within his specific area.” A Vice President may designate an Associate Vice President from his district to represent his district at Council meetings with all rights and privileges except the right to vote.”

With specifically limited authority, a designated AVP may act in the Vice President’s absence. The AVP Provides a communication link between the VP and Leader Members. The AVP also represents AMA at club meetings and events, and acts to facilitate communication between all AMA members, clubs, hobby shops, civic organizations, and the community at large, thus providing a positive impact on model aviation.

Associate Vice President, Recommended National AMA Duties

c. Become familiar with the AMA Blogs.

3. Read AMA’s print publications and subscribe to all AMA digital communications.

4. When attending National or District AMA events or meetings, dress in AMA attire.
   AVP note: Wearing AMA shirts and hats, and displaying your AMA provided name badge, makes it easy for others to recognize who you are and your position as an AVP. This communicates to clubs and members AMA’s participation in their events. It also provides consistency with your VP, other Council members, and AMA Staff.

5. Obtain preapproval for all expenses through your District Vice President and submit expense vouchers for reimbursement of any authorized funds. These vouchers must be submitted through the District Vice President.

Associate Vice President, Recommended District and Local Duties

1. When asked by a Vice President, an AVP will represent the VP at specific meetings, events, award ceremonies.
   AVP note: While AVPs are AMA officers, they have no authority to make any decision or take unilateral action on behalf of the Academy. Such authority is reserved for AMA Council Members elected by the membership.

2. Investigate and advise the Vice President regarding incidents or complaints from members, either as brought directly to the attention of the AVP or as delegated by the Vice President.
   AVP note: In all cases, where incidents of formal complaints are addressed to an AVP, the AVP must advise the Vice President of the communication. It should be noted that the AVP does not have the authority to stop any club event or sanctioned event from taking place.

3. AVPs need to become familiar with their District website and learn how to navigate, and download information and be able to show others how to do the same.

4. The Vice President will establish each AVP’s specific duties and reporting requirements based upon the District’s geography, demographics, club density, AVP territory and similar factors. Often the VP will assign a given territory, or a list of AMA Chartered Clubs for the AVP to work with.
   AVP note: The AVP is responsible for becoming familiar with the clubs, officers, and influential people within your area, and the social and political nature of each club. It is important that AMA knows which Chartered Clubs are friendly to new members, and those clubs that are active in their communities and perform charity work.

5. Get to know the Leader Members in your region, and provide information on qualifications and applications. Encourage each Club to have at least one active Leader Member.
   AVP note: Leader Members are the highest level of AMA Membership and AMA wants to engage LM’s to perform liaison with our clubs. 1. Pursuant to the authority of the Executive Council as set forth in Article V, Section 5 of the Bylaws, the Executive Council has the authority to provide for and to impose disciplinary action for any violation of any of the terms of the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Rules of the AMA, or which is detrimental to the AMA or model aviation. The Executive Council therefore may, at its discretion, promulgate policies and procedures relating to discipline of members which do not justify expulsion from membership. The Executive Council has the authority to discipline members in accordance with such policies and procedures as duly adopted and ratified by the Executive Council. Said policies and procedures are independent of any Bylaw dealing with a member-to-member complaint or complaints regarding contest directors, which investigation and disciplinary procedures may also be subject to the Standing Rules.

2. A member complains to a member of the Executive Council or AMA Headquarters about actions of another member. Most complaints can be resolved at this stage. All efforts should be resolved at this level via telephone or email.

4. The Executive Director, the President, and the elected officer will evaluate the complaint and decide whether or not to send a form “Statement of Charges” to the complainant.

5. If a Statement of Charges is sent to the complainant, returned fully completed and executed, then the Executive Director will consult with the AMA President, the District Vice President, and legal counsel about the sufficiency of the Statement of Charges.

6. If the Statement of Charges is deemed sufficient an elected officer will be asked to support sending the notice of hearing by signing a simple statement that he or she supports the action. The elected officer is not asked to prejudge the matter, only indicate that the matter is grave enough to warrant a proceeding.

7. If the Statement of Charges is not deemed sufficient, or if for some other reason there is a decision not to proceed, the complainant will be notified of the decision.

8. If the decision is made to proceed, a Notice of Hearing will be sent to the accused member and to the complainant.

9. The hearing will be conducted by the Executive Council in executive session.

COMPLAINTS REGARDING CDs

Complaints regarding a Contest Director (CD) while acting in their official capacity as a representative of the Academy of Model Aeronautics should be made in writing to AMA Headquarters, who in turn will forward to the VP of the District where the complaint originated or where the infraction occurred.

The VP would review the written complaints and contact the complainant if additional information or clarification is required.

The VP would then contact the CD, explain the complaint and request a response in writing.

The VP will review the complaint and the CD’s response, and take whatever course of action is appropriate to resolve the problem, whether it is a warning or a revocation of the CD license. If there is a reprimand given, it should be in writing. The CD may appeal any action taken by the VP, in writing, and request the matter be reviewed by the Executive Council. The Executive Council could uphold the action taken by the VP, overturn it, or refuse to hear it.
