

The AMA History Project Presents: Autobiography of DON GRISSOM

Written by DG (2013); Reformatted by JS (09/2013)

The following was published on the Model Aviation magazine website, describing columnists for the magazine, and added to the AMA History Project (at the time called the AMA History Program) files in September 2013.

Don Grissom

Having always wanted to fly airplanes growing up, I did not get into flying until 2000. I joined a local club and was instantly hooked on flying.

I fly many types of airplanes, from Scale warbirds to sport airplanes. I started RC Combat in 2004, when a few club members started flying Combat on the weekends. This was also my first year of going to the Nationals, although I only participated in the Marathon before Muncie (which was SSC Combat).

Since then I have been going to the Nationals every year, covering Combat for Model Aviation and NatsNews.

Don's column appears bi-monthly, in the January, March, May, July, September, and November issues. His email address is dongrissom@hilltopflyers.net.
